

Get free Barracuda XDR Cloud Security licenses to protect your customers and grow your business.

Promotion period: October 1 – December 31, 2024

Overview

Barracuda is offering a limited-time promotion providing free Barracuda XDR Cloud Security licenses. This promotion is intended exclusively for internal deployment by our partners to familiarize themselves with the service and understand how it can protect their own business. The goal is to help you experience firsthand how Barracuda XDR Cloud Security safeguards cloud environments, ultimately preparing you to confidently sell the service to your customers in the future.

How it works

- Partners must contact their channel manager to express interest in the free license promotion. The channel business manager, in collaboration with the XDR specialist, will send out a contract to process the free internal licenses.
- Partners can deploy XDR Cloud Security internally, strictly for their own use as a not-for-resale (NFR) solution. This internal deployment is not for end customers, it is meant to help partners who do not use or license our Barracuda XDR Cloud Security products to familiarize themselves with the solution while protecting their own internal infrastructure. By doing so, they can better position XDR to their customers. The NFR licenses will be free for one year, and then the standard 50% NFR discount will apply. If not renewed, free licenses will be terminated.
- Standard Barracuda XDR license terms apply.
- Not available for partners who are existing Barracuda XDR Cloud Security users.

For more information, please contact your local channel manager.
